

Keys to Successful Board Recruitment

A Guide for Nonprofit Leaders

About This Publication

This document describes the key elements and processes for successfully recruiting nonprofit board members. It was developed for the Maine Association of Nonprofits through a contract with Starboard Leadership Consulting, LLC and all copies, distribution, or changes to this handbook, in whole or in part, requires the written permission of both the Maine Association of Nonprofits and Starboard Leadership Consulting, LLC.

About the Maine Association of Nonprofits

The Maine Association of Nonprofits (MANP) is a statewide association of almost 800 nonprofit members and more than 140 corporate supporters which provides a broad range of management support programs, resources, services and information to assist Maine nonprofits in enhancing their community mission impact. MANP offers management training and leadership development programs, capacity building tools and assessments, Guiding Principles + Practices for Nonprofit Excellence in Maine resources, a staff helpline, legislative alerts, a job board, social and economic reports on the sector, and a group purchasing program for health care and employee benefits. MANP is part of a national network of over 40 state associations working to advance, connect and strengthen our country's vibrant nonprofit sector.
