

Emerging Leaders 10 Application

Please complete our online application at www.NonprofitMaine.org/EmergingLeaders by May 24th, 2019.

Note that our online system does not allow you to save and return to your application. Use the questions below to reflect and prepare answers in advance so you may submit your application efficiently.

Your Information

Name:

Date of Birth:

Personal Reflections

Tell us a little about yourself. What are your current personal and professional goals? (250 words max)

Describe your leadership experience—current or past—within your workplace and/or community. (250 words max)

What led you to apply to this program? What leadership strengths do you bring and what do you hope to gain from participating? (250 words max)

Thanks to the generosity of donors, we are able to offer tuition assistance to participants on a case-by-case basis. To request assistance, please describe your circumstances as well as whether you would still participate in the program if you were accepted, but the fee was not reduced. (150 words max)

Board Matching

The following information will help us select the nonprofit organizations that participate in our 2019 program as potential board/committee placements for the Emerging Leaders.

Do you currently serve on any nonprofit boards or committees? If so, which one(s), and what is the nature of your involvement/role?

Please indicate the mission areas you are most drawn to when considering board/committee service (check up to 5):

Animal Related	Food/ Nutrition/ Agriculture	Recreation/ Sports/ Leisure
Advocacy/ Legal/ Social Action/ Civil Rights	Foundation	Religious
Arts/ Cultural/ Humanities	Health & Rehabilitation	Research
Economic Development/ Job Creation	Housing/ Shelter	State Association
Education/ Academics	Human Services	Volunteerism/
Environmental	Mental & Developmental Disabilities Services	Community Improvement Youth Development

Are you interested in hands-on service with a grassroots organization or more drawn to working with an established organization?

Would you consider being matched with a nonprofit organization that holds some or all of their board meetings outside of the Greater Portland area?

565 Congress Street, #301
Portland, Maine 04101

tel: 207-871-1885
fax: 207-780-0346

www.NonprofitMaine.org
